Definition of conflict of interests

A conflict of interest generally refers to a situation where the impartiality and objectivity of a decision, opinion or recommendation of eu-LISA is or might be perceived as being compromised by a personal interest held or entrusted to a given individual.

DATA PROTECTION<sup>1</sup>

The purpose of the processing operations aims at avoiding conflicts of interests to protect the integrity of eu-LISA decisions from illegitimate interests. For more information on processing of DoI, consult eu-LISA Record of Processing Activity<sup>2</sup>.

The MB Secretariat of the eu-LISA collects, keeps, and safeguards all DoIs completed by the MB and AG members, in line with the form in Annex 1, together with assessments results as items of the MB and AG files.

Data subjects can exercise their rights of access and rectification of the factual data at any time before the closure of the assessment by contacting the unit at management-board@eulisa.europa.eu

The categories of data processed are: name, position, previous or current employments, ownership or other investments including shares, membership of a managing body or entity, intellectual property rights, spouse/partner's/dependent family members current activity, and other relevant interest, which might create a conflict of interest in the performance of duties of the declarant.

DoIs may be completed on paper or electronically.

The recipients of the DoI are the persons and bodies identified in these rules. DoIs may be transferred to bodies in charge of a monitoring or inspection task in conformity with Union Law, including the European Court of Auditors, the Internal Audit Service of the EC, the Internal Audit Capability of eu-LISA, OLAF, the European Ombudsman and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The conservation period of DoI per category of data subjects is five years from the date of submission of the relevant DoI, extended with one year if duly justified.

Data subjects have a right to access their DoI and to update or correct it at any time. In case eu-LISA has knowledge of information that is not consistent with the declared interest, or in case of failure to submit a DoI, the data subject concerned are contacted with the purpose to update the DoI on the missing information. In case a breach of the rules procedure is opened, the data subject is notified without delay.

The Data Protection Officer of eu-LISA (DPO) will ensure the compliance of these rules with the data protection legal framework. Data subjects also are entitled to have recourse at any time to eu-LISA's DPO (dpo@eulisa.europa.eu) or directly to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) <http://www.edps.europa.eu>.
