She holds a degree in Political Science from the Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris, a master's degree in Business Administration from Essec Business School and a master's degree in Public Administration from Harvard University.

About eu-LISA

eu-LISA started its operations in 2012 to manage large-scale information systems in the area of freedom, security and justice. The Agency's portfolio includes Eurodac (a centralised fingerprints database), the Schengen Information System (SIS) and the Visa Information System (VIS), which support the implementation of the EU's border management, migration and internal security policies.

eu-LISA's mandate was broadened in 2018 to implement Interoperability between existing and new systems, including the Entry/Exit System (EES), the European Travel Information Authorisation System (ETIAS) and the European Criminal Records Information System - Third Country Nationals (ECRIS-TCN). In 2023, the Agency took over the management of cross-border justice tool e-CODEX. The seat of the Agency is in Tallinn, (EE), while the operational management is carried out in Strasbourg (FR). eu-LISA also has a technical business continuity site in St. Johann im Pongau (AT) and a liaison office in Brussels (BE).
